Local Pizza Establishment Represents at International Competition

Randy's Pizza competes in the World Pizza Games

RALEIGH | DURHAM, N.C.

Representatives from local pizza restaurant chain Randy's Pizza qualified to compete in the 30th Annual World Pizza Games. The Games, part of the International Pizza Expo, occur annually in Las Vegas, NV. This year's Expo was from March 24-27, 2014, with 7,000+ attendees buzzing around more than 1,000 booths. It is the world's largest pizza trade show. Randy's Pizza was represented in the Games by owners Randy Smith and Tonino Mendes.

QUOTES:

"We have always believed that our pizza is best in class locally, but now we get to test that out in front of experts at an international competition," says Randy Smith, co-owner of the pizza chain.

"This is very exciting for not only Randy's Pizza, but for our customers and the Triangle area at large," he continues.

ABOUT Randy's Pizza:

Randy's Pizza opened its first location in 1995 and now consists of six locations in Durham, Morrisville, and Raleigh. The restaurant, known for its large slices, offers pizzas ranging in size from 14 inches to their newest offering, a 30-inch pizza recommended for families and large parties. Randy's is dedicated to the quality of its food—preparing dough daily, acquiring the freshest, finest ingredients, and working on stone, brick ovens. Each location is open seven days a week, serving lunch and dinner.
